Material: Aluminium

The Serre Electric Radiator is a sleek, eco-friendly heating solution crafted from aluminium, available in white and anthracite finishes. With an eco-friendly standby mode that consumes less than 1 watt of power, it's designed for energy efficiency. The LCD display and 24/7 programming via the Smart Life app allow for easy control, while open window detection and KSD overheating protection ensure safety. With WiFi connectivity, Google Home, Alexa voice control, and the Smart Life app for Android/iOS, the Serre offers ultimate convenience and modern comfort in your home.
